

Please allow Wisconsin to keep the no-call list. I feel it is an invasion of my privacy to call on my home phone and interrupt my dinner hour and evening hours after a day at work to try to sell something. It invades my quiet time at home with family.